MAYOR

PRESS RELEASE

Contact: Mayor Daniel T. Drew
Phone: (860) 344-3401

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
10/30/2012

Mayor Daniel Drew would like to announce the following updates:

The curfew for the City was lifted at sunrise this morning.

The Emergency Shelter is closed.

The Emergency Operations Center will remain open and will be available to answer phone calls until 4:30 pm today.

The State of Emergency for the City of Middletown will be lifted as of 4:30 pm today.

City Hall and all city agencies will be open for regular business hours starting Wednesday, October 31, 2012. City employees should report to work tomorrow as usual.

The Mayor would like everyone to know that Halloween will proceed as planned.

Public Works cleared dozens of down trees and debris throughout the night to make sure that the roads were clear this morning.

The City of Middletown made it through the storm with no major issues. Mayor Daniel Drew thanks the citizens of Middletown for their cooperation during the storm, and is very thankful for the tireless efforts put forth by the emergency services personnel and support agencies.

The Emergency Shelter housed and fed approximately fifty people during the height of the storm.

The hours of planning and training that went into preparing for this type of emergency showed during the smooth transition before and during the storm.
